
O - Interview with Chinese Company - Nocai - 1

Nocai was established in 2009. It is a manufacturer focusing on manufacturing and distributing small UV printers for industrial use. In recent years, it has also strengthened its DTG printer business. The headquarters office is located in Nansha District, Guangzhou, Guangdong Province, and devices are produced at the Wusha Plant (10,000 square meters) in Foshan, Guangdong Province. Data Supply Inc. conducted an interview with Wang Guangle, the president, about the company's history and business contents.

Company name	Nocai
Location	Office: Nansha District, Guangzhou, Guangdong Province Plant: Wusha Plant in Foshan, Guangdong Province
Year of establishment	2009
Registered capital	10 million yuan
Business description	It manufactures small UV printers for industrial use. In recent years, it has also strengthened its DTG printer business. The company is expanding sales of the NC-FZ0609 DTG printer equipped with an Epson head.

Question 1: About the company

Wang Guangle: We are primarily a UV inkjet printer manufacturer for industrial use. Our strength lies in our integrated business covering from product development, manufacturing, sales, to after-sales services.

Question 2: History of company and its growth

Wang Guangle: Nocai was established in 2009. (total 2 pages)

If you would like to see the rest of the article, please contact hariu@datasupply.jp